

Krysta McCain

Krysta McCain is from Laredo and studies at Laredo College where she is a psychology major.

She is to graduate with an Associate's Degree and then plans to transfer to Texas A&M International University where she will finish her school work.

She enjoys her work at RGISC because she believes that this organization is doing great work that will sustain Laredo and preserve its environment, river, parks.

In her spare time, she enjoys singing, calligraphy, reading, and traveling with her family.
