

Monica Molano (commercial realtor)

Monica Molano is a new member of the Rio Grande International Study Center Board and has made Laredo her home for the last 7 years. She and her husband are partners in Forum CRE, a commercial real estate and property management firm with offices in Laredo and San Antonio. They are blessed with two children, and another one on the way. Monica is originally from Oklahoma but met her husband, Carlo Molano, at University of Dallas where they both majored in Political Philosophy.